PROPOTIONAL VALVE

Sistema brevettato
di protezione da deposito calcare

I nostri soffioni sono dotati di limitatore di portata e guarnizione filtro ad incastro anti-caduta, gi inseriti nel prodotto. Proportional valve viene applicata al soffione per garantire integrit meccanica al prodotto evitando deformazioni, rotture e garantendo maggio re durata nel tempo. Nonostante vengano applicate ai prodotti le migliori tecnologie techniche e mecca niche e un materiale molto resistente come l'acciaio i prodotti necessitano di una costante e quotidiana manutenzione. Normalmente si possono creare delle rotture nel soffione dovute soprattutto alla scarsa manutenzione e pulizia del prodotto.
La scarsa pulizia degli ugelli di alimentazione in silico ne da parte dell'utilizzatore finale la causa della maggior parte delle non conformit che si generano in questi prodotti. Proportional valve entra in funzio ne quando gli ugelli anticalcare in silicone vengono otturati da calcare o sedimenti presenti nell'acqua. All'interno del soffione si crea una contropressione di spinta dovuta alla riduzione dei fori di uscita, questo normalmente genera una forza di dilatazione e in quel momento Proportional valve si apre e fa scarica re l'acqua dalla parte superiore del soffione obbligan do l'utilizzatore ad effettuare la manutenzione ordi naria. Questo sistema molto utile anche per salvaguardare il prodotto dal "colpo d'ariete", se il prodotto subisce sbalzi di pressione la valvola si apre evitando il danneggiamento al prodotto.
Proportional valve entra in funzione anche in caso di manomissione del prodotto (rimozione del limitatore di portata). Effettuando la pulizia del prodotto e rein serendo Proportion valve si porta il soffione nelle con dizioni iniziali di utilizzo.

All our shower heads are equipped with a flow limiter and an anti-cascade interlocking filter gasket, already incorporated in the product.
PROPORTIONAL VALVE is fitted to the shower head to guarantee mechanical integrity to the product, avoiding deformation, breakages and guaranteeing greater durability.
Although the best technical and mechanical technologies including very resistant material such as steel are applied to the products, the products require constant and daily maintenance.
Normally, damage to the shower head is mainly due to poor maintenance and cleaning of the product. Poor cleaning of the silicone spray nozzles by the end user are usually the cause of most problems that occur with these products.
PROPORTIONAL VALVE comes into operation when the silicone anti-limescale nozzles are blocked by limescale or sediments present in the water.
Inside the shower head a back counter pressure is created due to the reduction of the outlet holes, which in turn generates an internal force which then causes the PROPORTIONAL VALVE to open and drain the water from the upper part of the shower which in turn, will require urgent maintenance of the product.
This system is also very useful for safeguarding the product from "water hammer", if the product undergoes pressure changes the valve opens avoiding damage to the product. PROPORTIONAL VALVE operates even in case of product tampering (removal of the flow limiter). Cleaning the product and reinserting the PROPORTIONAL VALVE brings the shower head back to the initial conditions of use.

cleaning

Il nuovo e innovativo sistema SELF CLEANING ideato da DEMM con funzione autopulente permette ai soffioni e doccette di questa gamma, di mantenere il getto dell'acqua confortevole per sempre, senza bisogno di nessuna opera di manutenzione.
Una volta terminato l'utilizzo dei prodotti, alla chiusura dell'acqua, automaticamente escono gli ugelli autopulenti che portano via immediatamente ogni residuo o impurit , impedendo cos la formazione del calcare.
Il sistema viene messo in funzione ad ogni utilizzo e questo permette agli utenti di avere un soffione o doccetta sempre efficiente, in buono stato e con un'erogazione e una qualit dell'acqua sempre ottimale.

The new innovative SELF CLEANING system developed by DEMM with self cleaning function allows the overhead/hand shower to always maintain a comfortable and clean water jet without any need for maintenance.
When showering is finished and the water is turned off, the self cleaning jets are automatically pushed out resulting in the removal of any impurities or dirt which hence prevent the build up of lime scale.
This system is active every time the shower is used and ensures that the shower heads run efficiently, give a good flow, and maintain optimal water quality.
